1. COMMUNICATIONS. Meeting arranged tentatively at last meeting and confirmed by telephone. Next meeting to take place on 17 August 1965, again at CARAVEL's apartment and will be confirmed by telephone.

2. PRODUCTION. As requested, CARAVEL had the SG reports ready for me. They were to be completed and returned to him by 1600 hours on 28 July. (Note to do so was made with []) He had no comment on the SG reports other than to pass them on and arrange for their return.

He drew my attention to the [] visit of a few days ago and expressed his pleasure at having met [] whom he considered a very capable person and fully knowledgeable on the subject he discussed, namely Machine Records. This permitted me to bring up the mission of Smoydzin and Postel, Interior Ministry officers, who are to visit the U.S. under our sponsorship for examination of Machine Record facilities. CARAVEL was not aware that these people were going on such a trip. As requested by [] I told him that these two gentlemen had been selected at our request, that they had our full blessings, and they would probably establish contact with him for the purpose of getting the BKAs views, advice and blessings. I particularly pointed out that we desired as much as it were possible to have Machine Records systems employed by German agencies, ~~including some~~ to be compatible with our own. He fully appreciated this and endorsed the idea. He will render whatever help is necessary. [] was orally briefed on this.)

CARAVEL also drew our attention to Interpol exhibition which will take place in Paris some time in November and which will include the latest in Machine Records systems in use by various companies. [] also aware of this.)

I asked CARAVEL to check Heinz Emil Ernst Treutler with Ludwigsburg for us to determine whether or not this man is wanted for any War crimes. This per the request submitted by to us by Fabian von Schlabberndorf. CARAVEL is, of course, aware that the latter had contacts in KUBARK, so it was possible to give this to CARAVEL with full information as to the originator of the case.

I had occasion to ask CARAVEL for some comment on CATIDE but did not get very far with it as he said that he had not had any recent contact with them except for routine requests for assistance in training police officers. In other words, he had no substantive or evaluative comment to make on recent developments in CATIDE.
